

Film & Theology

Friday 23rd – Sunday 25th April @ St Deiniol's Library

The 12th annual weekend of screenings, discussions, clips and cuttings. As usual, the participants will explore the relationship between film and religion, theology and the Bible.

Residential Cost: £133 / Non-Residential Cost: £89

Programme

Friday 23rd April

- 6:00pm Introducing the Weekend
6:45 Dinner
7:30 Film: A Serious Man (Coen Brothers, 2009 – 106 mins)

Saturday 24th April

- 8:30 Breakfast
9:30 Reviewing A Serious Man
10:00 Tom Aitken
Miracle Workers, Beloved Sirs, Blackboard Carriers and Class Managers: Teachers in Difficulties, 1962-2009
11:00 Coffee
11:30 Chris Rowberry
Alien: Difference and Horror in Sci-fi Genre
12:15 Lunch
1:30 Film: Alien III (David Fincher, 1992 – 114 mins)

5:00 Film: Blackboards (Samira Makhmalbaf, 2000 – 85 mins)
6:45 Dinner
7:30 Film: The White Ribbon (Michael Haneke, 2009 – 144 mins)

Sunday 25th April

- 8:30 Breakfast
9:30 Reviewing The White Ribbon / Alien III / Blackboards
10:15 Peter Francis:
A very few words about Lars Von Trier
10:30 Coffee
11:00 Film: Anti-Christ (Lars Von Trier, 2009 – 104 mins)
12:45 Lunch
1:30 Film: Monty Python's Life of Brian (Terry Jones, 1979, 94 mins)

Please note: Clips and Cuttings - You are invited to bring a DVD clip of a film that is resonant with your theology / world-view. The clip should be no longer than 4 mins. and your introduction to it must be shorter than the clip. The clips will be shown throughout the programme.

Prices include programme, dinner, bed and continental breakfast, lunch, morning/afternoon tea/coffee but do not include en-suite supplements, telephone calls or alcoholic drinks. For further information, please contact St Deiniol's Library, Church Lane, Hawarden, Flintshire CH5 3DF on 01244 532350 or email enquiries@st-deiniols.org or visit www.st-deiniols.org.